Berlin, Auguſt 14, N. S.

HIS Pruſſian Majeſty came to Town this Morning from Potſdam, and this Evening he ſets out for Sonnebourg, whither all the Foreign Miniſters are invited, and the principal Perſons of Diſtinction of this Place are already gone, to be preſent at the Ceremony of the Election of a Grand Maſter of the Order of St. John, which comes on To-morrow. The new Knights are likewiſe to be created To-morrow. The King of Pruſſia goes through Cuſtrin in his Way to Sonnebourg. Colonel Kalkenſtein, formerly Sub-Governour to the Prince Royal, is appointed to go to the Court of Caſſel, to compliment his Swediſh Majeſty on the Part of the King of Pruſſia, upon his ſafe Arrival in his German Dominions.

Hague, Aug. 24, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland are aſſembled; but the great Penſionary being diſabled by the Gout, cannot attend them. The Deputies of the Province of Zealand, who were lately here, and went back to acquaint their Principals with what paſſed in their Conferences with the Deputies of the States General about the new Tariff or Duties on Goods imported or exported, are expected here again in a Day or two. The Prince of Naſſau Orange ſets out from hence To-morrow for Friſeland; propoſing to take upon him the Stadholderſhip of that Province and of Groeningen upon his coming to the Age of 21 Years, which will be on the 1ſt of September next. That Prince has taken his Leave of the ſeveral Colleges of this Government, and of the greateſt Part of the Perſons of Diſtinction here. Soon after his Arrival at Leuwarden, the Princeſs his Mother will ſet out to make a Viſit to her Brother the King of Sweden at Caſſel. Baron Spar arrived here two Days ago, and deſigns to proceed next Monday on his Journey to Caſſel, to attend the King of Sweden his Maſter.

Hampton-Court, Aug. 16, 1731.

Whereas the Paddock of David Ganſel, Eſq; of Layton Grange, in Low Layton, in the County of Eſſex, has been ſeveral Times attempted to be robbed, and particularly on the 25th of July laſt, in the Night, divers Perſons broke into the ſaid Paddock, and killed and carried away one Buck: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovery of the Perſons concerned therein, is pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them may be brought to Juſtice and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, the ſaid David Ganſel does hereby promiſe, that whoever ſhall diſcover the Perſon or Perſons who broke into the ſaid Paddock, and killed and carried away the ſaid Buck, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction, receive as a Reward the Sum of Thirty Guineas of him the ſaid David Ganſel.

David Ganſel.
